

Training Syllabus

Course length is usually, at least, three full days of training. Adverse weather conditions may postpone training days.

Theory

- site assessment
- introduction to a paraglider
- view how a paraglider flies
- introduction to a harness
- principles of flight
- weather conditions
- introduction to a paramotor
- how a paramotor starts
- pre-flight checks
- air space
- new and used equipment
- equipment retailers
- discounts on new paramotors and paragliders
- how to react to SIVS in flight
- landing
- steering a paraglider
- air law
- right is right
- turbulence and dangerous locations
- standard flight pattern
- types of decent (big ears)

Practical

- ground handling with the glider
- hill flight gliding
- ground handling with a paramotor on
- FIRST FLIGHT