

MILLHOUSE RETREATS

Programme 2009

8th Feb 'Community Living Today' led by Sister Mary Laurence 6.30pm

27th Feb—1st March 'Kneading the Gospel'- make bread, make friends & explore faith in the relaxed atmosphere of a farmhouse kitchen

18th March R.S. Thomas. Dean of Gloucester, Nick Bury explores prayer poetry and doubt through the writing of R.S. Thomas. 10am—4pm £20 meal included 20th—22nd March 'Healing Today'— Exploring Christ's ministry of healing and seeking empowerment for today. Led by Paul & Bryony Springate from Harnhill.

10th—13th April 'Overcoming self harm' Looking at self harm through the wounds of Christ A weekend for all those whose lives are marred by the pain of self harm.

8th—10th May 'Contemplative Prayer'- gathering together in silence as individuals and as a group to make space for God - led by Deidre Morris 15th— 17th May- 'Trees and Spirituality' Tree of shame, tree of glory. An exploration of the paradox of the cross in our lives. The weekend will include a study of the importance of trees and the plight of the rain forests. Led by Elizabeth Corner.

5th—7th June 'Consider the birds of the air ' time to observe and reflect on creation and with an opportunity to walk as well – led by Ann Lewin

25th—27th September Apple Picking Weekend—Fun and fellowship as we pick, press and bake the apples from the orchard (and sample the end results!)

9th—11th October Aquila Course– Exploring the pain of divorce and separation in the company of others– led by Revd Jane Taylor

13th—15th November 'Open heart, empty womb' For all those who have been unable to have children and who want to move on positively in their lives

For more details of any of the above events please contact

Revd Lynne Chitty Rocknell Manor Farm Westleigh Tiverton EX16 7ES

Tel 01884 829000

www.millhouseretreats.co.uk

janetaylor@millhouseretreats.