

In English this week...

Our main literacy work this week is about instructions.

Our work on texts this week should help you:

- ⇒ know the special features of texts which give instructions;
- ⇒ think about the layout features like headings, sub-headings and bullet points;
- ⇒ make the title or first sentence of your writing interesting to the reader;
- ⇒ write clear instructions which include the special features of instruction texts;
- ⇒ use link phrases, sub-headings and numbering to help the reader follow your instructions.

Our work on grammar, sentences and punctuation this week should help you:

- ⇒ learn more about verbs by spotting and using the imperative form;
- ⇒ experiment with changing the order of the words in sentences and think about the effect of this.

Our work on speaking and listening this week should help you:

- ⇒ ask clear questions and give clear answers;
- ⇒ think about different types of questions and how useful they are when seeking information.
