

The Eden People Guilfest 2009 'WOW' factor venue.

I don't know if you were one of the 1000+ people through our Guilfest Gallery venue in July but if you were I hope you enjoyed yourself with us (and here's a reminder), if you were not at the festival here's a 'taste' of the Eden venue for you.

Even as we set up in the midst of heavy thunder storms on the Tuesday there was an intention to create a venue that had a comfy relaxing feel, a creative attitude, spiritual essence and a heart of LOVE to all who visited us. Even as the marquee leaked in places we continued to construct a space that was well worth a visit and that would engage hearts, minds and spirits of all who entered the venue. After Thursday afternoon we could sit back on one of our three sofas and breathe a big sigh of relief. There before us was a venue with the 'WOW' factor and we were ready!

The venue for all; imagine three comfy sofas, a multitude of coloured cushions, low tables, carpet, rugs, small lamps, standing lights, bright banners, coloured drapes and a gazebo inside a marquee then you'll have some idea of what we did! Oh did we mention the bubble-wrap clouds, umbrellas' of dreams, gently fading lights, a very weird mix of music, paints, paper, spiritual sites and even an imitation fire! then there was something very unique about our venue. As the days went on, the artwork grew and where ever possible there were paintings and drawings hung up for display – if you come next year maybe you'll see your work in our '09 montage'

Add in to the above, the juicy bar with FREE juice, water and squash; FREE food like fresh and dried fruit, cakes, cookies, HEAVEN cakes and SPIRIT jelly where so many received healthy freshness to bring a bodily 'de-tox' after a nights camping or days partying! We had the usual face and body painting 'frenzy' outside the venue, Eden People GuilFest Angels 'out-and-about' delivering words of blessing, healing & encouragement along with trays of 'Spirit Jelly' and inside the usual mix of Eden loveliness such as Goody-bag give-aways, Free Healing, Blessing, Insight, Jesus Deck and Ruach card readings, wonderful massage (heads, feet, backs and hands) top this all off with friendly smiling faces from Eden People staff who just LOVE to LOVE people then there was no wonder that when people entered the venue they said 'WOW!'

Eden Angels & 'Spirit' Jelly

It was wonderful to meet old and new faces and to have the Spirit of Christ the Divine Creator so wonderfully at work bringing joy, tears, hope, enlightenment, healing, blessing and insight to all who wanted this.

So as Sunday night drew to a close a weary bunch of Eden staff started the de-rigging and packing away for the next time. I'm glad to say that most of us were in bed by 2am and so to Monday morning!

We hope you enjoyed this small journey to the Eden People Guilfest Gallery Venue 2009 and that we'll see you again next year at GuilFest; and for some of you, much sooner as Eden People do their stuff around Guildford over the coming months.

Amazing Artwork

So don't forget, if you want to join us for other gatherings, spiritual up-lift, healing and really great people then email us: edenpeople@edenpeople.org.uk to go on our mailing list.

Until the next time, graceandpeaceandlove to you

Eden People xxxx

All photos copyright of Lizzie Mcvicar Photography.