

TOPIC: A-14 OBSTETRICS

PROBLEM	KNOWLEDGE	SKILLS/ATTITUDES	LEARNING	ASSESSMENT
1. To be able to manage safely vaginal bleeding in pregnancy and establish a diagnosis	Normal changes of pregnancy Use of radiology Spontaneous abortion Ectopic pregnancy Abruptio placentae Placenta praevia HELLP syndrome Safe prescribing	Skills Management of haemorrhagic shock in pregnancy including uterine displacement.  D.I.C.  Role of anti-D immunoglobulin  Use of Pinard/Doppler  Attitudes To ensure the early involvement of other specialists.	LP LT GT PS ODA	OC CBD ME FFAEM MFAEM
2. Other topics	- Emergency delivery, including complications of labour and delivery. - Medical complications of pregnancy (eclampsia etc.) - Trauma in pregnancy		LP LT GT PS ODA	OC ME FFAEM MFAEM

OBJECTIVES:

- have the knowledge and skills to be able to assess and manage children and adolescents presenting with gynaecologic disorders to the Emergency department
- understand when referral for specialist paediatric gynaecology assessment is appropriate
- understand when referral to child protection team is appropriate ensure follow-up for pregnant children and those children with sexually transmitted disease