Advent is a time of reflective waiting—waiting for the birth of Christ in each one of us. In your prayers ...

... sit quietly in God's presence and reflect on the momentous change which came through the birth of Jesus Christ

... pray for Kylie's ministry here and at Rampton. Remember Becca, Tom and Dominic as they train for ministry. Also pray for Anne Warham our Reader, and our ALM's, Maggie Appleby, Sue Hooks and David Woodcroft.

... remember the sick and among them Brenda Banham, Bridget Cooper, Lizzy Fisher, Amy Gaze, Steve Gee, Michael Hore, Colin May, Amanda Norman, Frankie Saxby, Derek Sutton, Rob Swain and all who are undergoing tests or treatment, or are recovering at home

... pray for all who have died this week, especially remembering the soul of Bob Bradford, praying for Jennifer and their family. Also remember the soul of Edwin Unwin, praying for Dorothy and for John and Lynda and their family.

... pray for the parish and congregation of St John, March and its priest-in-charge, Stephen Taylor

... pray for people in Cumbria devastated by the damage to their homes and businesses. Pray for the emergency services and engineers working to keep the area safe and for soldiers building temporary bridges across the river in an effort to reunite the residents and businesses of Workington.
