The Club was established in 1885 and is one of the oldest Conservative Clubs in Great Britain. In the same year, the Club took over the lease of 5 Museum Street, one of the finest Georgian fronted properties in Saffron Walden.

In 1894, the Club was one of the first to join the newly founded Association of Conservative Clubs and the original Certificate can be seen in the Club lounge.

The Club still occupies this fine Georgian listed building close to the Town centre.

The cost of upkeep is substantial, as with all old and historic premises, but Members benefit from the use of one of the most attractive Conservative Clubs in the Eastern Area.
