A must win match for the seconds if they were to escape relegation ended in perhaps their most disappointing performance of season. Acting skipper Graham Pryke won the toss and elected to bat, and Mersea were soon labouring despite James Tilsley (17) and Trevor Vince (17) both reaching double figures. Mersea got to 91 for 4, largely through a 31 from captain Pryke. However, the tail slumped dramatically to Chapman and Nash and Mersea were skittled for 113. In reply Vine started to play his shots from the outset and made an accomplished unbeaten 69. Visiting captain Steve James played a solid role at the other end to record an undefeated 25 and Clacton got home in 22nd over by a ten wicket margin. A result that all but ends Mersea hopes of surviving the drop.
