

Church of the Good Shepherd, Brighton

UNITED BY FAITH?

Christianity and other religions

How do we relate to each other?

Do religious convictions encourage or hinder our relationships?

This autumn the Church of the Good Shepherd will be hosting a series of short talks given by representatives from the Buddhist, Hindu, Jewish, Muslim and Christian faiths. Each talk will last for approximately 20 minutes and will be followed by a short time for questions. Afterwards there will be an opportunity for an informal chat over refreshments.

All the sessions will start at 4pm in the Church at 272 Dyke Road, Brighton

- Sunday 5 October:     Judaism:     Rabbi Charles Wallach of Shaarei Shalom, Brighton & Hove Reform Synagogue
- Sunday 12 October:   Hinduism:   Dr Jani Milind, GP and President of Gujarat Cultural Society in Brighton and Hove
- Sunday 19 October:   Buddhism:   Mokshini, member of the Western Buddhist Order, and chair of the Brighton Buddhist Centre
- Sunday 26 October    Islam:        Dr Tariq Rajbee, GP and Chairman of the Hastings Islamic Information Centre
- Sunday 2 November   The Christian perspective and closing session:
Mr Neil Kelly, giving a lay Christian perspective
Canon Paul Oestreicher, former director of International Ministry at Coventry Cathedral
Dr Rodney Shotter, Reader & formerly Professor of Biological Sciences at Bayero University, Kano, Nigeria

ALL ARE WELCOME

Please join us for an interesting and informative series of talks