BLACKSMITH WANTED

At our well-equipped historical forge in mid-Lincolnshire we undertake an exciting and interesting mix of work in an area that covers a broad strip between the M1 and the A1 extending from the Humber to the Thames.

The broad range of work that we undertake includes:

- Bespoke contemporary and classical forge work, e.g. gates, railings, balustrades, interior ironwork
- Conservation/restoration and reinstatement of historical ironwork for e.g. churches, listed buildings, schools, etc.
- Public art commissions for local authorities or other non-commercial bodies, often involving forging workshops
- Specialist bespoke fabrication work e.g. structural ironwork, fabricated sculptural work

We work with:

- Commercial specifiers – garden designers, landscape gardeners, architects, conservation architects, construction companies
- Public and not-for-profit clients – County Councils, District Councils, Parish Councils, local and national membership organisations, regeneration bodies such as Groundwork
- Private clients

We are seeking a blacksmith with:

- relevant forge work experience and/or training
- excellent all-round forging and workshop skills (incl. welding)
- creativity and a 'can do' mindset
- commitment to the highest standards of workmanship and quality
- the ability to work as part of a team and also independently, and to work under pressure when required

If you are interested in playing a key role in the continued growth of this thriving forge where benefits include:

- Competitive pay rates (negotiable according to experience)
- Possible training/career development opportunities (scope for e.g. design, quoting and/or supervisory responsibilities)
- Small, friendly team and pleasant working conditions
- High standards of professionalism then please send a current CV (including details of 2 relevant professional referees) and a covering letter to:

Anwick Forge, 62 Main Rd., Anwick, Sleaford, Lincolnshire, NG34 9SU

Alternatively, call Tim or Fran Mackereth on 01526 830303, or email info@anwickforge.co.uk for further details.
