

Ananias helps Paul

The story continues.....

Saul was on his way to do nasty things to some followers of Jesus. But then he met Jesus. He saw a bright light and heard a voice. Afterwards he was blind. His friends led him to a house where he could stay.

For three days he could not see and he did not eat or drink. Then God spoke to a man called Ananias and he went to see Saul.

Your Bible reading

Ananias 'put his hands on Saul and said, "Saul, my brother, the Lord Jesus sent me. He is the one you saw when you came here. Jesus sent me so that you can see again and so that you can be filled with the Holy Spirit." ' (Acts 9 verse 17.)

Saul had met Jesus but he still needed someone to help him. God asked Ananias, a Christian, to help Saul. Ananias was scared at first because he knew Saul didn't like Christians.

But Ananias did as God told him. He met Saul and prayed for him. Saul found he could see again and from then on he became a follower of Jesus. He travelled the world, telling other people how they could have a new start with Jesus too. And to show he had a new life, he even had a new name – Paul!

Think about it

Ananias did what God asked him to do for Paul, even though it was hard. He made a big difference to Paul's life – and, because of that, the lives of many others.

God may ask you to help someone else too. It might be easy for you.....it might be hard. It will make a difference!
