

SCHOOL IS LEFT OPEN TO THE ELEMENTS BY GALE THAT RAISED THE ROOF

AS the storm roared in, Central Road Primary suddenly became an open-air school. The roof of the building in Part- ington, Manchester, was torn off leaving first-floor classrooms covered in rubble. Pupils were sent to the dining hall as the entire school began to shake. Miraculously, none of the children and staff waiting nervously on the ground floor was hurt by the falling debris. The devastated school will be closed for months.