1705	Trained William Pike Mudge retired business sold to Thomas Perkins	37,68 67,68
1719	Perkins died and William Pike bought the brewery Founded by William Pike, born in Poole. Sent to be apprenticed to his brothers cousin Mr William Mudge. William Mudge commenced as a cooper in 1666, by 1705 he was brewing at Penny Street. Mudge's business was transferred to Mr Thomas Perkins during Pike's apprenticeship. In 1719 William Pike founded his brewery in an old brewhouse at 19 High Street called the Antelope. This was built in 1670 by Mayor John White. There were originally three public houses: 1 The Blue Anchor, Mill Gate. Later called the Elephant and Castle. Licence transferred to the Elephant and Castle in Sultan Road when the Government extended the fortifications. 2 Butchers Arms, Bishop Street 3 Joyners Arms, College Street. Now the Old Royal Oak, built by William Mudge in 1705. In 1747 Pike bought Messrs Ribouleaus's distillery in Queen Street and moved it to Fountains Close, Mile End as Pike and Spicers Distillery, the brewery remaining solely Pikes. Later houses of note: Coach & Horses, Broad Street. Built by Mayor Owen Jenens, known as the St George until 1669. White Horse, Highbury Street, now Angel And County Court. Old Blue Bell, St Thomas Street Bulls Head, Barrack Street White Hart, Kingston, formerly Blue Anchor George & Dragon, Kingston Road. Built in 1716 was known as the Cherry Garden until 1760. Bakers Arms, Halfway Houses, built 1750. Penny Street had two wells, one 400 feet deep William Pike lived at Penny Street William Pike lived at 19 High Street	67
