DIRECTIONS

From Newcastle, follow the A1 North in the direction of Alnwick. Take the turn off for Warkworth (Coastal Route), approximately 8 miles South of Alnwick. Follow winding country roads towards Warkworth for around 5 miles. This will take you to the picturesque medieval village of Warkworth. You will see the impressive castle ruins as you enter the village. Head down the hill, past the castle and through the village towards the new bridge over the river Coquet.

Take the first left turning as you leave the bridge (1), which climbs rapidly up the river valley. Leaving the village behind, follow the road for about a mile, crossing a railway line (2). Continue for a further half mile until you approach a small group of buildings with stone gateposts on your left hand side (3). You have arrived at Eastfield Hall.

Drive through the gateway, past the first group of buildings and take the first right following the gravel road. The Shieling is directly ahead of you. You can park to the right hand side of the house, adjacent to the main entrance.
